

Careers drop down December 25

Team building

As a team each class have to design and build their own Santa. Following the Christmas tree competition last year the competition to win is great Pupils had to use creative skills, communication, to be different roles in the project and work as a team which are all vital skills for life. Judging is on Friday with Ms Warner !

